

Guidelines

Eligibility criteria and Application process for Restaurant participation in Cariblicious promotions:

- Restaurants interested in applying to participate in Cariblicious should review the Eligibility Criteria, Application and Review Process, before submitting an Application Form
- Restaurants must first submit an Application Form to become eligible to participate in Cariblicious
- Restaurants must review and meet all eligibility criteria and possess a Public Health “Pass/Approval” from the municipality Health Department.
- Restaurant Chef MUST be of Caribbean Heritage.
- Eligibility to participate will be determined by comparing the average price of a three-course meal on a restaurant’s regular menu with the minimum requirements for each price point category established for Cariblicious.
- All applications will be reviewed by Taste the Caribbean Advisory Board to determine if the applicant meets the Eligibility Criteria and the applicant’s price point category for participation.
- Once a restaurant has been deemed eligible to participate, they will be notified to accept the Registration Approval on or/before Registration Due Date
- Approved restaurants that accept the Registration Approval will receive confirmation in the form of an Official Participation Agreement Email and Marketing Material via Canada Post.
